Michelin-starred cuisine at Kulm Hotel St. Moritz - Tim Raue's Swiss gourmet restaurant was awarded a star by the Michelin Guide

St. Moritz / Lucerne, February 2019: Since the 2017/18 winter season, the celebrity chef from Berlin has overseen the pop-restaurant "The K" for the Kulm Hotel St. Moritz. Known for his intense, aromatic creations and his very high-quality standards, Tim Raue has made himself known as one of the leading chefs in Germany. His restaurant in Berlin Kreuzberg, which was named after himself, was awarded 19.5 GaultMillau points and two Michelin stars - making it number 37 of the "World's 50 best restaurants".

"The K by Tim Raue" recently received 17 GaultMillau points, while the Michelin Guide awarded the collaboration between the native Berliner and the five-star superior hotel with one Michelin star. Hotel Director Heinz E. Hunkeler states: "Together with Tim Raue, 'the K' has become an embodiment of our hotel: chic, yet down-to-earth and with an inviting atmosphere. The modern Asian compositions and the young, fresh and creative ideas behind the concept make dining in 'the K' a remarkable experience. We are very proud that the GaultMillau award is now accompanied by a Michelin star. Congratulations to the whole kitchen and service team."

Tim Raue's Sous Chef Lion Schirmer, the deputy chef at "the K by Tim Raue" accepted the award on behalf of the entire team at the award ceremony in Lucerne. For Tim Raue, this is first Michelin star in Switzerland, and he maintains close contact with the team in St. Moritz and is frequently on-site.

Apart from "the K by Tim Raue" there are five more restaurants in the Kulm Hotel St. Moritz. The culinary journey takes guests through the flavors of Peru, Italy, France and Switzerland.

About Kulm Hotel St. Moritz

Kulm Hotel St. Moritz (www.kulm.com) was the first hotel to be built in St. Moritz. The Kulm Hotel opened its doors in 1856 and immediately became popular for summer spa and painting holidays, particularly among the British who comprised around 75% of the hotel guests. The former owner of the Kulm Hotel, Johannes Badrutt, initiated winter holidays to St. Moritz from 1864 and, as a result, the hotel, resort and Switzerland itself celebrated 150 years of winter tourism in the 2014/15 season.

Since the 19th century, the Kulm Hotel has changed considerably through expansion and renovation, but the fabulous location at the heart of St. Moritz with views over the lake remains the same. A member of Virtuoso and The Leading Hotels of the World, Kulm Hotel St. Moritz has 164 rooms, seven restaurants (including formal dining, the Italian restaurant, “The Pizzeria” was awarded 14 GaultMillau this year, Gourmet-Restaurant the K awarded 16 points), the extensive Kulm Spa St. Moritz (with a 20 m indoor pool with underwater music, various saunas and steam room, a Jacuzzi, a fully-equipped gym and treatment rooms, all with stunning views over Lake St. Moritz) and six conference rooms, with capacities ranging from 50 to 500 people.
